Afif, Akram, Hadi, Hasif CSCI 4343 Data Science

IIUM
INTERNATIONAL ISLAMIC UNIVERSITY MALAYSIA

DEMOGRAPHIC AND REGIONAL DEATH TRENDS IN MALAYSIA (2001–2021)

Gender

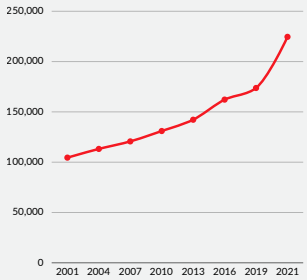

Male is the dominant categorical mode at 57.6% representing 1,711,630 records, outstripping Female at 42.4% to reveal a persistent 15.2% long-term public health disparity.

State

Total deaths directly tracks regional population density and urbanization, led by industrialized hubs like Selangor with 441,068 deaths and Johor with 364,700 deaths, contrasted by WP Putrajaya at a minimal 2,195 deaths.

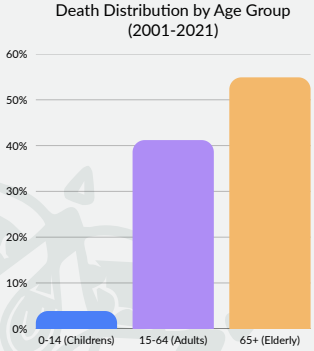

Year

Malaysia recorded a rising trend in total deaths from 2001 to 2021, reaching its highest point in 2021 with 224,569 deaths, contributing 7.55% of the overall recorded deaths.

Age

Senior citizens aged 65 and older comprise the absolute majority of deaths at 54.6%, while working-age adults between 15 and 64 bear a substantial premature burden at 41.2%, and children death's remains minimal at 3.9%.

Source: Department of Statistic Malaysia (DOSM)
https://archive.data.gov.my/data/ms_MY/dataset/death-by-state-sex-and-age-group-malaysia/resource/c7ae3dd7-b2aa-4458-ad10-877099ac9089